PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Enjoy coming home to this four bedroom Cape style home in its serene setting in Cheshire. The nicely manicured lawn and abundance of trees offers aesthetic appeal. Well maintained, you'll find the attention to detail throughout to be one of the many highlights of this property.

The formal living room boasts classic hardwood flooring, crown molding and a separate seating area where the beautiful brick fireplace creates a cozy environment. A large pass-through window allows views into the spacious kitchen. The center island with seating is great for casual conversations while the abundance of counter space is ideal for those who love to cook. Red birch flooring and cabinetry highlight this rooms warm atmosphere. Conveniently located off the kitchen is the formal dining room accented by hardwood flooring, chandelier and windows that allow natural lighting to come streaming throughout.

Upstairs hosts the nicely sized master bedroom with its unique wide plank hardwood flooring and deep walk-in closet. This floor has two additional bedrooms offering enough room for everyone. A fourth bedroom can be found on the main level and is great for weekend guests. Featuring walls of windows and tile flooring, the spacious family room boasts an open feel while the french doors grant access to the paver patio. The finished lower level and charming mud room offer extra space to gather. An oversized lawn and generous paver patio will be a favorite place to spend time during warmer months.
