PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Handsome Colonial on one of Cheshire's prettiest streets! This home was previously used as a dentist office and residence harboring an attached space with many rooms used for this purpose. Set back quite a distance off the street, this home will provide minimal neighborhood noise. Equipped with three bedrooms and two and a half bathrooms, this house ensures a perfect home and office combo to live and work comfortably!

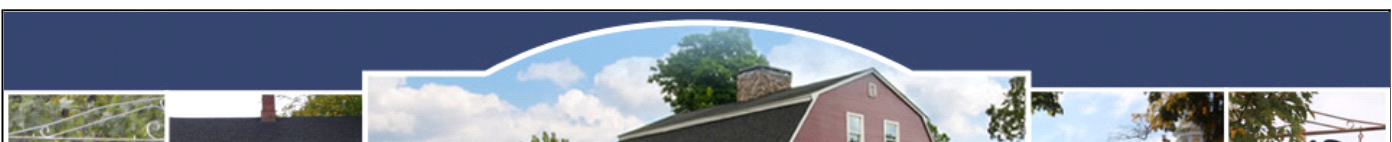

As you enter this charming home, you'll gain the opportunity to view the living room or formal dining room from the foyer also housing stairs to the second level. The enormous living room with wood burning fireplace will grant plenty of space for relaxation with access to an adorable enclosed screen porch for transition to the outside. Create your own culinary masterpieces in the spacious kitchen with plenty of room to add an island if desired. A generous formal dining room offers an excellent place to enjoy meals or gatherings with guests, walk through the entrance to the attached office, or head outside through the separate exterior door.

Up the stairs to the second level, three bedrooms, a full bathroom and stairway to the attic await your arrival. Escape to your personal sanctuary in the sizable master bedroom graced with hardwood flooring and a walk in closet with window. Two additional bedrooms, one boasting its own walk-in closet, feature hardwood flooring and will assure ample room for an ever expanding family or overnight guests. The huge attic area could be converted into a loft or storage area for large bulky possessions with ease. Back outside, a detached one car garage will house your vehicle, protecting it from the elements. A massive wooded yard on almost an acre contains the driveway which extends through to the entire rear of the home, creating a pain free move-in and worry free deliveries. This draft of residential artwork is just waiting for your personal enhancement.
